

Documentary Judging Criteria

The Documentary is designed to use documentary style filmmaking techniques to feature a service organization.

Cinematography. How well was the camera used in terms of angles, shot size, exposure, color, imagery and special film effects?

Graphic Reinforcement. How well did the graphics used support the documentary?

Audio. How well did the audio display clarity and modulation in its reinforcement of the ideas of the documentary? How effective was the soundtrack?

Directing. How well were the ideas of the documentary presented? Did it clearly deliver its message?

Editing. How well did the composition of the documentary deliver the intended message?

Overall Effect. How well did all of the elements of the documentary work together to deliver the intended message?